Terrorism must be delinked from religion as no religion teaches terrorism : P M India

Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Shri Narendra Modi attended this year's edition of the World Sufi Forum on Thursday, March 17, 2016 in New Delhi and proceeded to speak about India & Sufism and touched upon many important points like India's diversity, Islam in India, War on Terror, Not Waging War on Islam, Rise & Spread of Sufism for Love, Peace and Tranquility. In fact, such was the impact of his speech that many people were in-fact influenced to imbibe Sufism and its tenets into their daily lives.

We are proud to share following 15 selected quotes from his speech during the inauguration ceremony at Vigyan Bhawan at New Delhi which has proven beyond doubt that as a leader of this great nation of diverse people, he strongly backs any citizen who is truly committed to the cause of India; irrespective of the faith:

1. He spoke about the heart of India and its tolerant nature: "Like our nation, the city's (Delhi's) heart has place for every faith, from those with few followers to those with billion believers."
2. He told that Sufi's are the hope in these dark times: "At a time when the dark shadow of violence is becoming longer, you are the noor or the light of hope. When young laughter is silenced by guns on the streets, you are the voice that heals."
3. He praised the unity shown by Sufis: "In a world that struggles to assemble for peace and justice, this is an assembly of those whose life itself is a message of peace, tolerance and love."
4. He praised the diversity of Islamic civilization: "You represent the rich diversity of the Islamic civilization that stands on the solid bedrock of a great religion."
5. He quoted Khwaja Moinuddin Chisti: "In the words of Khwaja Moinuddin Chishti, of all the worships, the worship that pleases the Almighty God the most is the grant of relief to the humble and the oppressed."
6. Demonstrated his deep understanding of Islam: "When we recall the ninety-nine names of Allah, none of them stand for violence. He is both Rahman and Raheem".
7. He reiterated his faith in Islam's conviction against terror: "The ideals of Islam have always rejected the forces of terrorism and extremism."
8. He stressed that how important secularism is to India: "All our people – Hindus, Muslims, Sikhs, Christians, Jains, Buddhists, the micro-minority of Parsis, believers, non-believers, are all an integral part of India."
9. He talked about the impact of terror on World Economy: "Every year, we spend a 100 billion dollars in securing the world from terrorism. This is money that should be spent improving the lives of the poor."
10. He said that terror is not religion, but anti-religion: "Those who spread terror in the name of religion are anti-religious."
11. About War on Terror: "The fight against terrorism is not a confrontation against any religion. It cannot be."
12. Again praising Diversity: "Diversity is a basic reality of Nature and source of richness of a society; and, it should not be a cause of discord."
13. Stressing on being Human more than being Hindu or being Muslim: "The global community must be more vigilant than ever before to encounter the forces of darkness with the light of human values."
14. He quoted Sufi Poet Jalaluddin Rumi's words: "Contain all human faces in your own, without any judgment of them."
15. He talked about and acknowledged the nationalistic pride of Muslims: "It is this spirit of Sufism, the love for their country and the pride in their nation that define the Muslims in India."
